Inferno Metal Festival 2018 will mark the 30th anniversary of legendary Swedish death metal band Grave. The band will perform a set spanning from 1988 (1986 with Corpse tracks) to 1991 – which means only demo material that some of it were later recorded on albums and also some tracks written for the “Into the Grave” album. So in easy terms the band will play no songs that were written or recorded later than 1991.

Join the celebration in the name of true old school Swedish death metal at Inferno Metal Festival 2018! This will be brutal as hell!
