1349 replace ABORTED at the INFERNO FESTIVAL

Unfortunately ABORTED can't make it to INFERNO this year but promise to come back stronger. We are happy to announce that Oslo's own 1349 will replace them on so short notice to serve the masses some true Norwegian black metal!

1349:

1349 rose from the ashes of the band Alvheim in 1997. Their name comes from the year the Black Death reached Norway. 1349 tour on a regular basis; their live shows often begin with drummer Frost (Satyricon) and guitarist Archaon fire-breathing. In recognition of their influences, the band performed a cover of Mayhem's "Buried by Time and Dust" on their debut album, Liberation. At their live shows they have also covered Celtic Frost, the band that vocalist Ravn cites as his principal influence.

1349 released their fifth full length album Demonoir on 26 April 2010 in Europe and the USA. The album shows a return to their earlier hyperspeed sound, while continuing its low-fi production and ambient sensibilities. 1349 has toured with Carcass, Suffocation, Aborted and Celtic Frost which frontman Tom Gabriel Fischer joined 1349 on stage at their last appearance at The INFERNO festival 2008. Can we hope for the same this year since they are sharing the same stage? We can't wait to see them back and they promise to blow the heads off the INFERNO crowd!
