AURA NOIR AND MORE TO INFERNO 2025

We are pleased to announce that Aura Noir, Thus, Hate Angel, and Aasar are confirmed for Inferno Metal Festival 2025!

AURA NOIR

Norway's ugliest band, Aura Noir, is back! Back in 1993, the underground metal trends were moving towards polished sounds and overuse of keyboards. A couple of guys in Oslo didn't like this direction and decided to go the opposite way. Thus, Aura Noir was born. Aura Noir still delivers the ugliest and rawest form of black thrash out there—completely without compromise! With classic records like “Black Thrash Attack,” “The Merciless,” and “Out to Die” under their belt, this can't go wrong!

THUS

Thus is a new melodic death metal band from Denmark. Despite their short lifespan, the young trio has already made a name for themselves far beyond Denmark's borders. This year, they won the prestigious Wacken Metal Battle against hundreds of other competitors. The band's death metal is melodic and includes progressive elements but is also groovy and brutal. Don't miss the next generation of death metal when Thus performs in Norway for the first time.

HATE ANGEL

Hate Angel hails from Oslo and plays blackened thrash metal. The band has been going strong since 2017 and has so far released an EP, “Chosen Ones” in 2019, and an album, “Kill for Passion” in 2021. Hate Angel has earned a good reputation in Oslo's underground, where they are known as a fierce live band.

AASAR

Aasar is a blackened death metal band from the cold mountains of Trentino, Italy. The Italians play a brutal form of metal but are not afraid to draw inspiration from more modern genres like deathcore. Last year, Aasar released the EP “From Nothing to Nowhere” and has received great praise, building a name for themselves in the underground scene. Now, the band is coming to Norway for the first time!
